

THESDAY EVENING, SEPT. 8, 1908.

UNUSUAL activity marks the close of the state campaign in Maine. September 14 the state elections will be held and a governor, state auditor, members of the legislature and county officers will be elected. Conditions make the result somewhat doubtful. The proposition to resubmit an old constitutional amendment to prohibit the manufacture and Hamilton, Loudonn county, this morn-sale of intexticating liquous is one of the ing, and will be concluded Wednesday night. main points at issue. Bert M. Ferasld, the republican nomince, who had a hard fight in the convention, is a stand-pat'er on prohibition. Obedish Gardner, democratic nominee, is a teetotaler but be declares the people should express their views on the liquor question and he is willing to abide by the result. The taxation of wild lands is another quertion that enters into the campaign. Chairman Mack, of the national democratic committee, says: "We will yesterday. Representative Carlin, make no effort in Maine. Whatever is done there will be done by the local managers. We are not wasting efforts over impossible states." Notwithstanding which, however, the Maine democrats have accured the services of several speakers of renown, including Senator Gore, of Oklahoma, and will give the republicant the fight of their lives. In the meantime the republican party is sending prominent national speakers into the New England states in the effort to roll up an impressive majority.

THE American Bar Association, in session at Seattle last week, adopted the new code of ethics which a committee nad prepared. One of the chief features is that lawyers shall not counsel clients or allow themselves to transgress the moral law in fighting their legal battles. Contingent fees, when senctioned by law, shall be under the supervision of the court. It is the duty of all lawyers to respect the courts and to try to keep politics out of the selection of judges. Coursel for persons secused of crime may act in that especity without regard to their personal conviction as to the guilt of the accused. Attempts to curry faver with juries by fawning or fl tiery are discredited. Lawyers may not represent interests before legislatures unless they do so openly. Soliciting business by circulars, etc., is unprofessional. No case should be undertaken that conflicts with the final obligation of the lawyer to uphold the law of the land.

No Attempt on the President's Life

Oyster Bay, L. I., Sept. 8.—Upon the departure for New York today of Maj. Wadsworth, the friend of President Roosevelt, who was riding with him last Saturday, the bottom was knocked out of a story that an attempt had been made to sasassinate the president. Bothat while a shot was fired near the road along which he and the president were riding it was not directed at either of them but was fired by some target practicers on the farm of Mr. W. Emlen

Roosevelt, the president's cousin.

This positive statement, coupled with an investigation at Mineola of a man suspected of the shooting, which proved the latter to be quite harmless, completely upset the theory of an attempted sassination which had been given considerable credence by a number of newspapers throughout the country. The story took its shape from the arrest yesterday of John Coughlin, a crank, who attempted to gain an inter-view with the president. This arrest came subsequent to a mysterious hasty visit to Oyster Bay, a few hours previous, of Chief Wilkie, of the secret service. It was coupled with a report current in Oy-ter Bay of the shooting slong side the road over which the president passed on Saturday with senastional result.

This afternoon Secretary Loeb made he following statement regarding the shooting: "The sensational story appearng in ce: tun morning papers is without the slightest foundation. It is a fake, pure and simple. Chief Wilkie's visit here Sunday was to see the head of this department and Secretary Cortelyon at the opera house. Notable among these Hantington on maiters wholly unconnected with the story."

Emperor William.

Berlin, Sept. 8.—Emperor William is undergoing the rigors of a soldier's life this week. As umpire-in-chief of the great annual maneuvers of the German army in Alsace-Lorrsine, he is camped with his men and today he rode for hours on horseback, following the manuevers with the enthusiasm of a new recruit. The kaiser's headquarters are at the castle near Metz, but he spends most of bis time in the work of the maneuvers. More than 100,000 soldiers are engaged in the maneuvers and unusual interest attaches to them on account of their being held so near the French frontier. There is no doubt that Germany seeks by holding the maneuvers on territory wrested from the French to impress France with her military greatness. The essential features of this year's maneuvers is the partcipation of three military airships of different types.

The French Victorious.

Governor Hughes.

New York, Sept. 8.—Governor Hughes' strength in New York is being tested at the primaries here today. In nine election district the voters will declare in favor or against his nomination, and on their decision it has been said by a number of politicians, State Chairman Woodruff and County Chairman Parsons will determine whether they will continue their opposition to the Governor. Hughes himself, whose home is at the Hotal Aster, was expected to arrive during the day to take part in the primary.

There is no contest in the district in which he lives and toe voters there have not been asked to declare in favor or against him.

Mr. Longworth's Stable Burned. Cincinnati, O., Sept. 8.—Cincinnati firemen saw Mrs. Alice Roosevelt Longworth in a "nightle" on the Longworth lawn at 2 o'clock this morning. The congressman's stable, less than 100 feet in the resr of the house, burned with a loss of $25,000 Congressman and Mrs. Longworth, with the score or more of servants, rushed out of doors at the alarm clad only in their night robes. Although five fire companies were on the scene, the Longworths were afraid to re-enter the house, as it seemed certain to be destroyed. It sets back from the road so far that a line of hose had to be stratched 1,000 feet to reach the single available fire plug. The blaze was finally confined to the stable. The origin of the fire is unknown.

The Carrency Question.

New York, Sept. 8 — Members of the congressional financial committee who have been passing through New York on their return from Europe where they have been making investigations indicate the latter of the latter that little will be attempted in the way of financial legislation at the coming short session of Congress beyond some revision of the present banking laws.

There is a strong sentiment that a much more ambition, project will grow out of the committees work. Senator Aldrich, chairmen of the committee and of the senate finance committee, it is said by his colleagues is desirous of bringing about the establishment of a homeogeoues and scientific currency sys-tem for the United States and to leave it

Realizing as she must have done that the duke could not be dissuaded from his purpose, the queen haris Pia of Portugal is preparing to leave for Italy where she will make her future home. She is reported as having done everything in her power to induce the young king Manuel to abdicate and accompany her, but he declares his duty is to remain among his people whatever may be the result. erred, court circles say, in driving the duke's family into open resentment by her vehement reception of the plea of Count Turio, who came to her as an country, bas advised her that Manuel of the Circuit Court of Lee county, re-

The count's defense of his brother's flancee and his defiant declaration that his own mather, Princess Letitia Bona-parte, descended from a family not of the blood ryal and yet was good enough to sit in the throne of Spain for five years as the consert of King Amadeus, was a bold stroke and will likely result in a lasting supture in the royal house-hold. The result of the interview between the count and the queen will likely be to hasten the wedding rather than delay it. The weddlog has been set for January 29, the duke's birthday anniversary, but it is stated that he will temporarily relinquish his command of the Regins Elena and hasten to America to urge an earlier marriage.

Taft and Foraker.

Sandasky, O., Sept. 8 .- Invading the Foraker stronghold Judge Taft addressed two meetings here today before starting on his return swing across Ohio, for Cincinnati. Judge Tafa's first meeting was at the Soldiers' Home, where he greeted the veterans. This meeting was purely non-political. The big event of the day was at the opera house when Mr. Tast appeared before a large audience and spoke under the auspices of the Taft organization committee of this county.

Taft's visit here was expected to heal the bad breach between the two factions. In a measure it has been succeeded, but the aggressive Forsker leaders here were denied invitations to the Taft meeting at were the Mack Brothers, editors of the official republican organ of the city an county. Mr. Bryce is known to bave accepted the appointment with the understanding that he was to be free to retire as soon as the recently signed arbitration treaties with the United States were concluded, the New Foundland [fisheries question settled and some understanding reached concerning Mongolian immigration into the United States from Canada. All these matters having been satisfactorily disposed of, Mr. Bryce is understood to have intimated that he would like to return to private life.

Forest Fires.

Duluth. Minn., Sept. 8.—Forest fires are again raging in the Mesabs Range and the town of Snowball, with one hundred inhabitants, is reported to be completely wiped out. Hibbings and several other small towns are now threat ened.

After destroying Snowball and burnover a territ ry of 25 miles, the fires died down to fay. The fact that the renewal of the fires resulted from only a slight bretz, shows that they are still a serious menace. Snowball was a suburb of Hibbing and its inhabitants had no difficulty in escaping.

The citizens of the ruined town of Chisholm today began the work of rebuilding after the city council, st a meeting in Hibbing, had adopted a new building constructed after May 1 next.

In appearing by an amount of the fire proof.

A boye' petty quarrel near Century, Barbour coun y, W. Va., Sunday after-Loop, had a tragic ending when Roy Ward, 13 years old, shot and instantly killet Hers-I O'Neill, aged 16, a rest-dent of Buckbannon, W. Vs., and a visitor at the home of the Wards. While on the porch looking over some souvenir postal cards, the boys got into some dispute concerning them. Young O'Neill kept on sorting the cards, but his playmate, becoming sulled, paced up and down the porch, and then catered the house. In a few minutes Ward r ap-Wholesale Prices of Produce. peared armed with a rifle, and, without warning, stopped up to O'Neill, took aim and fired a bullet into his head. The bullet entered the victim's brain, and he d ed on the spot. Because of his feeblemind doess, young Ward has not been taken into cus ody, but is at home, seemingly unable to realize the awful deed he has committed.

ATTACKED BY BEES.

Attacked by a swarm of bees, which turned their attention to him when he endeavored to rescue a a tortured horse, W. B. Yost, a resident of Henrico county, lies at his home in a serious condition, while the horse is dead, m re of pain than poison. Mr. Yost had gone to visit a friend on Saturday and so he approached the house saw a horse kick over a hive of honey bees. They at-tacked the animal, which was hitched to a post, and Mr. Yout endsavored to cut the bridle. He was covered by the swarm, and, although retreating from the upset hive, he was folloard. Mr. Yort is badly swollen from head to foot, but physicians are now of the opinion that he will recover.
